

Dannie Aymond

Special to The Town Talk

BUNKIE — Services for Dannie Aymond, 56, of Bunkie were at 10 a.m. today in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Bunkie. Burial was in Pythian Cemetery under direction of Hixson Bros., Bunkie.

He died at 1:15 a.m. Sunday in St. Frances Cabrini Hospital. He was a carpenter and a native of Hessmer.

Town Talk (Alexandria, LA) 10-11-1977 p. A4, col. 1

Dannie Aymond services Tuesday at St. Anthony's

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Dannie Aymond, 56-year-old carpenter who died Sunday at 1:15 a.m. at St. Francis Cabrini Hospital in Alexandria.

Rites were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday from Hixson Bros. Funeral Home here to St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Msgr. Patrick Murphy, the pastor, officiated, with interment in Pythian cemetery.

Survivors are his wife, Lela Bordelon Aymond; two sons, Ryan of Bunkie and Dannie, Jr., of Pawnee, Tex.; a daughter, Miss Margaret Aymond of Baton Rouge; a brother, Ikyman of Bunkie; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Tassin of Bunkie and Mrs. Harrie Dupont of New Orleans; and one grandchild.

A native of Hessmer, he lived at 600 South Knoll.

Bunlie (LA) Record 10-13-1977 p. 16, col. 5