WOMAN IS AFL CONVENTION VETERAN

It's the 64th annual convention of the Indiana State Federation of Labor and Mrs. Mary L. Garner has attended "more than 25" of the parleys. The convention opened today at the Claypool Hotel. Mrs. Garner, of South Bend, became a member of the United Garment Workers Local 182 in February, 1918. She is now first vice-president of the federation. Studying the program with the South Bend woman are Harold Bogard (standing), of Indianapolis, and John Soucie, Evansville, second vice-president of the federation. —The News Photo, George Tilford.
